

Two opportunities to fulfill a Rosh Hashanah Resolution

A Chance to Make Hebrew a Priority

Sunday, October 23rd at 9:30 a.m.

Join us to explore with other interested congregants ways to improve our Hebrew levels.

We're considering several classes:

- 1) A beginner's Aleph/Bet class (perhaps leading to an Adult Bar or Bat Mitzvah celebration).
- 2) For those with some background a chance to learn some Modern Hebrew and enhance some conversational skills.
- 3) Improving knowledge of Biblical Hebrew probe sacred texts without translations.

This meeting is to gain a sense of who's interested, what levels should we be offering and what are the best times for meeting. If you are interested but are unable to attend on Sunday, please contact Rabbi Prosnit.

Begin at the Beginning on Saturday October 29th as we start another cycle of Torah Study with a look at the Parashat HaShavua—the Portion of the Week

Every Saturday Morning at 9:30 a.m. we learn Torah together.

Some attend 8:00 a.m. services—others arrive in time for the study group.

Some participate every week—others drop in when they can.

Some have solid biblical backgrounds—others are novices to the study.

Some know Hebrew—most do not.

Bottom Line: Everyone is welcome! Join us for an enriching, enjoyable and engaging hour of weekly learning of our most sacred text.
