Dear Friends,

There are many ways to become involved at B'nai Israel, as the women we will be honoring in May have demonstrated. They have served on the synagogue board and chaired committees. The music of Naomi Schaffer and Liz Nigrosh fills the synagogue and the tent on many Shabbats and the High Holy Days. Liz and Barbara Abraham have led the Caring Committee. Barbara is especially helpful to those congregants who have difficulty getting to the synagogue. Janet Jurow has led our Religious Practices Committee and acts as prayer leader. Naomi organizes the Oneg Shabbat food volunteers.

Combined, they have over 100 years of giving to B'nai Israel. Barbara Abraham, Janet Jurow, Liz Nigrosh, and Naomi Schaffer contribute to the caring, warmth, welcoming and spirit that is B'nai Israel, and this is our chance to say thank you.

On Thursday, May 31st we will honor these four amazing women at our annual B'nai Israel Spring Celebration, our biggest fundraiser of the year.

We applaud their good works, we see them as role models and now we have the chance to formally honor them while we gather with friends.

We rely on the success of this endeavor annually and offer many levels of giving along with the opportunity to thank our honorees by placing a tribute in the journal produced exclusively for this event.

Enclosed is a form to facilitate your much-appreciated gift and your message of thanks. Your participation is critical to our success, so please consider giving generously to show your thanks for our honorees and the synagogue. Please return your completed giving form in the enclosed envelope to the temple office by Thursday, May 3rd.

Thank you in advance for supporting the continued vibrancy of our congregation and we look forward to celebrating with you.

Sincerely,

Bill Schwartz Caren Schwartz Jack Kadden
